

Development Director

05/05/2010

Company: Tawasul Telecom

Reference Number: DDIR

Location: Kuwait

Job Description

Purpose of Job Position:

Manage and direct the development team.

Main responsibilities:

- director of core network, core it and development teams
- responsible for department related budget creation
- technical lead for design and operation of Tawasul Telecom network and its customers
- working hands-on on variety of Cisco routers and switches up to Cisco GSR 12000 series
- working hands-on on variety of Unix based servers
- responsible for design and implementation of datacenter (servers, servers consolidation and virtualization, storage, backup, business and it contingency)
- responsible for design and implementation of security policy and security management based on the ISO/IEC 27001 standard
- responsible for securing the technology (RSA, physical security, server secure environment, network security)
- responsible for design, implementation, staging and operation of large-scale IP/MPLS network running on Cisco equipment (running on GSR core routers 12406 and 12404 using IOS and IOS/XR)
- responsible for creation of all related processes and procedures
- consultant for product creation, service lifecycle and marketing department
- consultant for pre-sales department and customer solutions

Required Skills:

Languages: English, Arabic

Experience required: Minimum 5 years experience in ISP and minimum 3 year Hands-on experience in MPLS

Personality: Excellent verbal and written communication skills, responsibility, accuracy, analytical thinking, ability to find and select effective approaches.

Education: Bachelor's degree or higher, CCIE level certification is preferred

Other information:

Career Level: Management Level (minimum 5 year experience required)

Employment Status: Full time

Starting Date: ASAP